Hi Ken,

I've been away from the office for a few days so I have now received both e-mail and FedEx of what is clearly an historical mistake in terms of your company not receiving proper credit for this 1996 production. If AMI were still in existance I'm sure we would correct the record, but as that is not the case all I can do is offer my personal condolences that such a swindle occured, leaving you improperly unacknowledged. I'm also sorry it took so much time and effort for you to gather all that you needed; I hope what you have discovered will allow you to press your case with anyone who still needs to know how you and the original client were denied your due for "One Sight, One Sound, One Sell."

You are certainly welcome to cite anything I have told you and to keep me cc'ed on any correspondence if you like, but don't feel an obligation to do so at any point.

I continue to wish you the best on this quest.
